“ My Grandad was a giant among men, at least he seemed that way to me anyway. He was one of my first heroes. He was a man of classic style, quiet confidence and true class. Will love and miss him.

“ I called my wonderful father in law granddaddy. When my boys were born that's what all the grandkids called him. He was certainly "grand" to us all! If you read Gallatins 5:22 you can see what kind of man he was..he lived,"the fruits of the spirit" He loving raised six amazing children and his patience and kindness toward all of us was a beautiful sight to behold. He cared about all of us so much. When nanny was sick he never left her side. He took care of her with patience,love and kindness!! Granddaddy in his way helped and guided us to better people. Granddaddy I loved you so much and I thank you and God for me being apart of this family! Those of you who didn't know him well read Galatins 5 and you see the person he was!! Peggy
